

PHOTOS IN A DRAWER

Lyrics: Les Kotzer / Music: Lewis Manne

When she passed away
I cried and cried for days
Wanting what I had before
While walking through her room
One Sunday afternoon
I came across old photos in a drawer

I turned to close the door
Slowly sat down on the floor
Looking through those photos old and worn
Treasures from my past
Days that went too fast
In my hands were edges cracked and torn

Photos in a drawer
She kept old photos in a drawer
Faces and places haven't seen for years
All that time erases the laughter and the tears
Photos in a drawer

I got up from the floor
Put the photos in the drawer
Except the few I held so dear
Though life won't be the same

Once I put them in a frame
I'll always have these precious moments near

Her very special moments
She always thought of them that way
I just wonder where the time went
Oh how I miss those days

Photos in a drawer
She kept old photos in a drawer
Faces and places haven't seen for years
All that time erases the laughter and the Tears
Photos in a drawer
Photos in a drawer
She kept old photos in a drawer

Faces and places haven't seen for years
All that time erases the laughter and the tears

Photos in a drawer
